

K-Love uplifts me on my way to work and when I listen, I feel more productive. It gives my community a great alternative to secular music. I feel my community would suffer morally without K-Love.